Lord-Deputy and COUNCIL, A PROCLAMATION.

CAPELL,

H E R E A S Great Complaint hath been made to Us on behalf of the Widows in the County of Cork, who alledge they ought to be Exempt from paying Hearth-Money, by the Rules of the Act of Parliament in that behalf made, but have not the benefit of the said Act, through the Non-Attendance of several Persons appointed by Proclamation, Dated the Third Day of May, 1693. to Sign such Certificates in the said County of Cork, at the General Sessions of the Peace. We being sensible that many of the Persons by the said Proclamation in that behalf appointed are Dead, and others have Removed their Habitations out of the said County; And that others therein mentioned seldom attend, or meet at the General Sessions of the Peace for that County. For Remedy of the said Evil, upon the Information of the Justices of the Peace met at the General Sessions of the Peace for the said County of Cork, on the Fourteenth Day of January; and upon their Application, have thought fit to Publish and Declare that the Persons hereafter mentioned, That is to say, Sir Mathew Dean, Rt. Richard Travers, Arthur St. Leger, Richard Hutchins, Michael Parker, Bryan Townesend, Emmanuel Moore, George Simmes, William Warner, Robert Gookins, Francis Roberts, Francis Hodder, Nicholas Brumly, Warham St. Leger, Lawrence Clayton, James Mansergh, Samuel Maynard, John Wakeham, John Boles, James Barry, and William Wakeham, Esqs; Dr. Arthur Pomroy, Dean of Cork, John Patrickson, and Richard Brown, Clerks; And the Sovereign of Middleton, for the time being, shall and may Examine and Certifie, according to the said Act of Parliament, what Widows are, or ought to be Exempted from paying Hearth, or Chimney-Money by the said Act. And We Do hereby Declare that the Certificate or Certificates of the Persons above-named, or any of them shall be, and be Deemed and Reputed and Allowed of as of the same and Equal Validity and Force, as if the said Persons had been Named and Appointed to Sign the same by the said former above-mentioned Proclamation, any thing herein Contained to the Contrary: Whereof all Collectors and Farmers of Hearth-Money and Chimney-Money, and all other Persons whatsoever are to take Notice. Given at the Council-Chamber in Dublin the 11th Day of February, 1691.
